

I do not agree with granting Technician class licensees HF privileges, that is what the General class license is for, or, change the Technician class license exam to reflect HF operations. That is, operation and frequencies, etc. Just removing the Morse requirement does not automatically grant a VHF class license HF operating privileges.